

Program and information for the 32nd European TI Treffen in Rome

The TI-99 Italian User Club is waiting for you!

The Italian community of the TI-99/4A invites all users for the next European Treffen in hotel "Rouge et Noir" in Rome from September 29th through till October 1st, 2017.

For those who don't know. The TI Treffen is a historic European gathering of TI-99/4A enthusiasts from all over the world, has taken place since 1986 and is organized every year in a different city. This year, for the second time, it is Italy's turn to host this beautiful and long-awaited event. The TI-99 Italian User Club is organizing this event in the Italian capital! The TI-99/4A will be the protagonist of this full immersion. The live auction and competition section with available TI-99 material must not be missed. And see also the presentation of new hardware and mini-conferences-on-topics-concerning-the-TI-99.

ROME's historical town was founded in 753 AD but was already inhabited much earlier and this makes some places of Rome the most ancient in Europe. The population of the city consisted of a mix of Latin's, Etruscans and Sabine's. The city became the capital of the Roman Kingdom, the Roman Republic and the Roman Empire, and is regarded as one of the cradles of Western civilization. It is called 'Roma Aeterna' (The eternal city).

The TREFFEN HOTEL will be the Rouge et Noir Hotel & Conference Center, a 4-star hotel near the Centre of Rome with 207 rooms: cosy and bright double, triple and quadruple rooms. Those rooms include all comforts and a spacious balcony: air conditioning, WiFi, TV, fridge, phone, electronic safe and bathroom with bathtub or shower. Rouge et Noir also offers a private parking and an outdoor swimming pool, free of charge to customers. The Hotel has a shuttle bus (at fixed hours) to and from the nearest Metro station. The Hotel Rouge et Noir is about 2 km from the Metro station 'Pietralata' (line B).

Hotel Rouge et Noir, address: Via di Pietralata, 162-00173 Roma (Italia)

TWO AIRPORTS bring in Rome connection with the rest of the world. The airport of Fiumicino (Leonardo da Vinci) the biggest and with connections to the major airlines from all over Europe. This airport is also used by budget airlines such as Easy Jet and Vueling. The other airport of Ciampino is instead old and small. It is used by Alitalia and also by many other airlines such as: Wizz Air, Transavia, Ryanair and Easy Jet.

The public transportation in Rome is excellent. There is an extensive network of buses and there are three Metro lines: A, B and C. The central point for public transport is Termini (also the main train station). At this station there are train connections to the two Rome airports.

The TI-TREFFEN starts on Friday after lunch with the installation of computers in the exhibition room of the Hotel Rouge et Noir: the ideal room for demonstrations of this type. Saturday is totally dedicated to our beloved computer and we will close the day together with the annual TI TREFFEN dinner. During this dinner we will communicate about the place and date of the TI-TREFFEN for the subsequent years and also we will announce the winners of the Edgar Mauk Awards for the year 2017.

On Sunday morning the TI-99 Italian User Club offers to those who are interested, a visit by bus into Rome; a tour guide will be present inside the bus. It is possible to wine and dine within the hotel or choose to dine in one of the restaurants scattered around the city. The number of seats is limited and we give priority to non-Roma residents. Reservations are recommended and appreciated. The cost of attendance Booking for a double room for single use, about € 134.-for 2 days which include two nights and breakfast buffet (2 x € 48.60.-), dinner on Saturday (€ 25.-), taxes (2 x € 6.-). (For a double room with two visitors you should consider € 22.- extra). For other rates and inquiries you are recommended calling the hotel directly.
